

Setting the Tone

Tateo Arimoto

Executive Research Fellow
Economic and Social Research Institute, Cabinet Office, Japanese Government
Japan

Educational Background

Master degree Physical chemistry, Graduate School of Science, Kyoto University, 1974

Professional Experience

2005	Executive Research Fellow, Economic and Social Research Institute, Cabinet Office
2004	Director-General, Science and Technology Policy Bureau, Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology (MEXT)
2002	Deputy Director-General, Lifelong Learning Policy Bureau, MEXT
2001	Deputy Director General, Science and Technology Policy, Cabinet Office
2000	Director, Research Promotion Division, RIKEN Yokohama Institute
1999	Director, Policy Division, Science and Technology Policy Bureau, STA
1998	Director, Department of Public Communications, Japan Atomic Energy Research Institute
1996	Director, Radioactive Waste Policy Division, Atomic Energy Bureau, STA
1994	Director, Planning Department, Japan Marine Science and Technology Center

Field of Study

Science and Technology Policy