

Grave concern about the situation of Dr. Ahmadreza Djalali

We echo grave concern expressed by the International Science Council (ISC) about the situation of Dr. Ahmadreza Djalali, an Iranian-Swedish scholar of disaster medicine, who is reportedly at imminent risk of execution. Considering the 2017 opinion of the UN Working Group on Arbitrary Detention on this matter, we stand with the ISC in urging halting the execution.

May 18, 2022

KAJITA Takaaki
President, Science Council of Japan