

Opening Ceremony

Laurie S. Geller

Science Officer, ICSU, France

Educational Background

- B.A. Chemistry, Washington University, St. Louis Missouri, USA, 1992
Ph.D. Atmospheric Chemistry, University of Colorado, Boulder, Colorado, USA, 1996

Professional Career (Including Position)

- July '03 - present Science Officer; International Council for Science (ICSU); Paris France
1997 Oct. - 2003 July Senior Program Officer / Study Director; U.S. National Academy of Sciences; Washington DC, U.S.
1997 June - 1997 Aug. AAAS Environmental Science and Technology Policy Fellow (with the Environmental Protection Agency); Washington DC, U.S.
1993 June - 1996 Dec. Graduate Research Associate; National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration / Climate Monitoring and Diagnostics Laboratory; Boulder CO, U.S.
1990 June - 1990 Sept. Research Assistant; Smithsonian Environmental Research Center; Edgewater MD, U.S.

Field

Atmospheric Sciences / Global Change
