

Theme 3

Monte Cassim

President, Ritsumeikan Asia Pacific University, Sri Lanka

► Educational Background

| | |
|---------------------------------|--|
| B. Sc. | Faculty of Natural Sciences, Department of Architecture, University of Sri Lanka, 1970 |
| Research Fellow | Graduate School of Engineering, Yokohama National University, 1973 |
| Graduate School Research Fellow | Department of Urban Engineering, The University of Tokyo, 1974 |
| M.Sc. Programme | Graduate School of Engineering, The University of Tokyo, 1976 |
| Ph.D. Programme | Graduate School of Engineering, The University of Tokyo, 1982 |

► Professional Experience

| | |
|----------------|--|
| 2004 – Present | President, Ritsumeikan Asia Pacific University Professor, Ritsumeikan Asia Pacific University Vice Chancellor, The Ritsumeikan Trust |
| 2000 – 2004 | Director, Ritsumeikan Center for Global Education and Research |
| 1996 – 2004 | Professor, College of Policy Science, Ritsumeikan University |
| 1994 – 1996 | Professor, College of International Relations, Ritsumeikan University |
| 1985 – 1994 | UN Expert and Coordinator, Industrial Development Unit, Housing and Urban Development Unit, Strategic Assistance Programmes in Latin America and Indonesia, United Nations Centre for Regional Development (UNCRD) |
| 1981 – 1984 | Regional Development Planning Coordinator, AUR Urban and Regional Planning Consultants, Tokyo |
| 1980 – 1981 | Architect, Design Management Division, Planning Department, Mitsui Construction Ltd., Tokyo |
| 1976 – 1977 | Full-time Lecturer, Building and Planning, School of Housing, University Sains Malaysia, Penang, Malaysia |
| 1972 – 1972 | Architect, Design and Consultancy Division, State Engineering Corporation of Sri Lanka, Colombo, Sri Lanka |

► Field of Study

Industrial Policy, Environmental Science, National Land Planning, City Engineering, Architecture