

Session 1 Keynote

Peter James Rimmer

Emeritus Professor, The Australian National University,
Canberra, Australian Capital Territory (ACT), Australia

Educational Background

- |             |   |
|-------------|---|
| BA Honours  | Geography, Manchester University, 1958                            |
| GC in Educ. | Education, Cambridge University, 1959                             |
| M.A.        | Geography, Manchester University, 1960                            |
| Ph.D.       | Geography, Canterbury University, Christchurch, New Zealand, 1965 |

Professional Experience

- |                |   |
|----------------|---|
| 2000 - Present | Emeritus Professor and Visiting Fellow, Division of Pacific and Asian History, Research School of Pacific and Asian Studies, The Australian National University, Canberra, ACT, Australia |
| 2001 - Present | Adjunct Professor of Housing and Regional Development, Centre for Developing Cities, University of Canberra, ACT, Australia   |
| 1966 - 2000    | Research Fellow, Fellow, Senior Fellow and Professor, Department of Human Geography, Research School of Pacific Studies, The Australian National University, Canberra, ACT, Australia     |
| 1965 - 1966    | Lecturer, Monash University, Melbourne, Victoria, Australia   |
| 1960 - 1962    | Schoolmaster, Oldershaw Grammar School, Wallasey, Cheshire, UK  |

Field of Study

Geography